BREVITIES.

It is estimated that the excess of the wheat crop will amount to some twenty-five million bushels.

Maud Miller, won summer afternoon was tending bar in her father's saloon; She sold her and sang "Shoo Fly," And winked at the men met her left eye.

—The June says New England girls are not so pretty or sparkling as the New York belle, but then they have much bigger feet.

—For evening toilettes white dresses are the most distinctive, or those of pale, soft shade of rose, blue, mauve, and straw-color. Skirts are often covered up to the waist, and are very full.

—It is very common now for ladies to have busts made of a piece of the material of their dresses. The gray or brown linen are especially desirable for wear with lined costumes.

—One of the revelations of the Beecher-Tilton matter is that Theodore Tilton always paid his grocery bills. This is a good sign for Theodore, trifling as it may seem.

—The coming (autumn) bouquet will have strings; it will have a high crown and partially turned up brim. There will be considerable face trimming and full of real or imitation lace (which ever you prefer) at the back.

—An English singer in London was nearly killed in a recent fire by a box flung at her by one of her admirers. The lady's recovery was aided by the fact that the box contained some splendid diamonds.

—About $8,000,000 worth of sugar was lost during the flood in Louisiana. Of the rice destroyed by the overflow it is estimated that $5,021,940 pounds have been lost, which makes about 64 cents, aggregates $311,963.

—She can stand it pretty well once or twice; but when you spill a saucer of raspberry jam into her lap the third time, things get uncomfortable, and she works her countenance as if she wasn't born to be angel.

—The check riot in Memphis cost four lives all right men. Among them were the sheriff and his two brothers. Fortunately an attempt to induce the negroes to arm was unsuccessful, and peace was restored. These are the beauties of reconstruction.—New York Herald.

—Says a Detroit editor: Chicago may talk about the homeliness of Detroit; but there is no real reason for fear. When one of them gets mixed they don't have to dig up half the street to get a sixteen-foot scatting under her foot for a party.

—Straw jewelry is something new. It comes from Niagara; it can be had from those imitation Modocs who infest that city.

—The caravans of small baskets, stars, daggers, and so forth, and there is a funny kind of bracelet, which is a case of a cane-bottom chair.

—The Grange movement has been more successful in California than elsewhere. Not contented with the success already attained, the members of the Grange of their own, with a capital of $5,000,000 in 50,000 $100 shares. The Patrons have been enabled to charter fifty vessels themselves this year, and are confident that facilities will be ample in future to take all their grain to market.

—Mrs. Burnham, of the Louis R. Wards, of Theodore, gives the word of instruction to the Mrs. Tilton. Her beauty, but Elizabeth is forty, has had seven children, was never handsome, is shapeless, with a dull, ordinary face set between two rows of cork-screw curles. The Miss Burnhams found about thirty negroes in the town, who surrendered at once; eight of whom were arrested and sent to jail; the others were non-combatants and were not molested.

—Everything up to nine o'clock this morning, when I left, was quiet.

—Then I learned that the negroes were organizing for the purpose of re-taking Austin, and their pickets were stopping everybody.

—Col. Campbell, formerly sheriff of DeSoto County, Mississippi, has caused the river here and gone to Austin to endeavor to restore peace.

—SPECIAL TO THE CONSTITUTION.

The Convention assembled at 10:30 A.M. to-day. J. G. Wright, of Scriven, was elected President, and J. N. Henderson, of Jasper, and T. H. Latimer, of Baldwin, Vice Presidents. L. Carrington was chosen as Secretary.

Names of Messrs. Blount, Lawson and Floyd were proposed for the nomination.

Colonel Blount was unanimously nominated, amidst much enthusiasm, on the sixth ballot. Every county in the District was represented.

After the business of the Convention had been gone through, with a telling and patriotic speech.

—IVERSON L. HUNTER.

From Washington.

—By Telegraph to the Constitution.

WASHINGTON, August 11.—The case receipts for the week ending August 9th were in New York, $2,767,386. Philadelphia $1,445,233. Baltimore $1,057,43. Attorney General Williams has forwarded his opinion as to whether the three-sixty thousand dollars in the treasury bond by the President, by whom an opinion on the subject was solicited, but he will not make the opinion public until he is advised to do so by President Grant.

—The participation of main officers of the United States service in the movements of the Japanese government against the inhabitants of the Island of Formosa is likely to cause some embarrassment to our government and that of China; the latter claims to have jurisdiction over the Chinese subjects and its people, and that is a question on the part of the United States which will please take notice thereof and govern themselves accordingly.

—Papers in the District will copy. E. STEADMAN, Chairman.

Covington, Ga., Aug. 10th, 1874.

—THE interesting showing of Fulton county products, on the local page, is very gratifying.

—THE CONSTITUTION this morning presents a face marred by accounts of wars, murders, and shocking crime. To relieve the sickened mind of the reader, we give him a large installment of practical agricultural matter.

—HEROIC WOMAN.

The story of Bazaine's escape to be found in our column this morning, is a beautiful illustration of a woman's heroic devotion. It is due entirely to the exertions of his brave Mexican wife, won while pushing the fortunes of the ill-fated Maximilian. She planned the escape, and we are further told that her brave hands even plied the oars of the boat that bore the soldier from his prison home.

—THE WAR OF RACES.

The telegraphic accounts of the war in Mississippi grows more serious. A severe conflict is undoubtedly impending. And to some extent going on. The civil rights bill is precipitating the frightful issue sooner than we expected. Not only in Mississippi, but in Tennessee the negroes are becoming intolerably insolent, and on the slightest provocation threaten to "burn the town," a favorite punishment with them. The skies in every direction look black and lowering. Our last dispatches from Mississippi report the situation unchanged. Before to-morrow frightened bloody work may have resulted. We have only space to refer to the telegraphic reports and promise to keep our readers fully and promptly advised.

—U. S. GRANT.

—THE PRIZE FIGHT.

—WASHINGTON, D. C., August 12.—In answer to a congratulatory telegram from the President of the Argentine Republic, Sir—I heartily congratulate your Republic on the completion of a work which brings the South American nation into immediate communication with each other, with the rest of the civilized world. It is an important step in the interest of commerce and good fellowship between nations and people.

(Signed) U. S. GRANT.

—EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., August 12.—A very small attendance at the Independence Mass convention so-day. A resolution was passed declaring the place of attorney General, and the auditor on the independent ticket vacant. The nominee for the latter, Mr. Henderson, had been nominated by the convention, and had declined after the appointment of the committee.

Colonel Alston piled up the corn forage in heaps till it heated, dried it thoroughly, turned it and let heat again and again until it could heat no more.

FORAGE CROPS. ■

Colonel T. C. Howard remarked that the forage crop was a question underlying the success of the farmer. The fable of the man who ate his horse to feed himself was told him.

The word "Welcome" in large letters, was displayed at several places in towns indicative of the outspoken hospitality of the people.
